

Contract

Operation	assignEmployeeToShift(id, role, shift, isOverride)
Cross References	Assign Employee to Shift
Preconditions	- The employee exists in the system. - The role exists in the system. - The shift exists in the system. - The employee is qualified for the selected role. - The shift has available space for the selected role. - The shift already has a shift manager assigned, unless the employee being assigned is the shift manager. - If isOverride is false, the employee is available for the selected shift.
Postconditions	- A new ShiftAssignment is created. - An association is formed between the employee, the shift, and the selected role. - The employee is assigned to the selected shift with the selected role.